

Godlewski says she wants to use her office to support state election clerks and promote democracy

Posted on Wednesday, Aug 9, 2023

In this week's Capitol Chats episode, Secretary of State Sarah Godlewski talks about how she plans to run her new office, specifically how she wants to help clerks do their jobs. She also talks briefly about her role as chair of the Board of Commissioners of Public Lands.