MILWAUKEE — Caroline Gómez-Tom, candidate for Milwaukee County Board in District 14 in the May 2 special election, announced today she's been endorsed by former Lieutenant Governor Mandela Barnes and Milwaukee Common Council President José Pérez.

"I am proud to endorse Caroline Gómez-Tom for the Milwaukee County Board, District 14," said Barnes. "She is a trusted leader in the community and has worked hard to ensure the safety and health of all residents in Milwaukee. District 14 deserves an accomplished leader that understands how to get things done."

"Caroline Gómez-Tom has been a phenomenal leader and advocate for a healthier community and will represent our neighborhoods well on the Milwaukee County Board," said Pérez. "I'm proud to give her my enthusiastic endorsement."

"I am grateful to have earned the support of great leaders like Mandela Barnes and José Pérez," said Gómez-Tom. "The people of District 14 deserve a strong voice on the county board and I'm ready to serve my community as a Supervisor."

Barnes and Pérez join a long list of leaders and organizations supporting Caroline's campaign. A full list can be found at carolinecaresmke.com/endorse.
