MILWAUKEE, WI — The campaign for Evan Goyke for Milwaukee City Attorney announced today that he has been endorsed by more than a dozen state legislators.

“The next City Attorney must be a stable presence that will be available to everyone in the City of Milwaukee,” said Rep. LaKeisha Myers. “My friend and colleague Rep. Evan Goyke is perfectly poised to lead the charge and create the changes necessary to provide that stability. I am proud to endorse him.”

“For too long the City Attorney’s office has lacked transparency and broken trust with our community,” said Sen. LaTonya Johnson. “I am thrilled to endorse Rep. Evan Goyke for Milwaukee City Attorney because I know that he will ensure the office always functions with accountability and trust in mind.”

“I’m honored to have earned the support of so many of my colleagues in my campaign for Milwaukee City Attorney,” said Rep. Evan Goyke. “As City Attorney, I will provide proven, accountable, effective leadership. We will work to make the city safer, more prosperous for all, and restore the world-class legal representation the City and our residents deserve.”

The following current and former State Senators and State Representatives have endorsed Rep. Evan Goyke for Milwaukee City Attorney today:

State Senator Tim Carpenter	State Representative Darrin Madison
State Senator LaTonya Johnson	State Representative LaKeisha Myers
State Senator Chris Larson	State Representative Sylvia Ortiz-Velez
State Representative Deb Andraca	State Representative Daniel Riemer
State Representative Ryan Clancy	State Representative Christine Sinicki
State Representative Dora Drake	State Representative Robyn Vining
