MILWAUKEE, WI — Evan Goyke's campaign for Milwaukee City Attorney announced today the endorsement of former City Attorney Grant Langley.

Attorney Langley served as Milwaukee's City Attorney from 1984 to 2020. During his historic tenure, the City Attorney's Office enjoyed both statewide and national recognition. Attorney Langley received numerous awards throughout his career, including a public service award by the State Bar of Wisconsin which now bears Attorney Langley's name.

Following the endorsement, Evan Goyke said:

"I am honored and humbled to receive Attorney Langley's endorsement. I have deep respect for Attorney Langley and his decades of service to our City. I have had the great opportunity to meet with Attorney Langley and learn from his vast experience. When elected, I hope to serve with the same distinction and passion that Attorney Langley did during his time in office. I am grateful for his advice, guidance, and support."
