

Habush Sinykin campaign: Thanks organized labor for their support during the SD 8 special election

Posted on Friday, Mar 31, 2023

>> WisPolitics is now on the State Affairs network. Get custom keyword notifications, bill tracking and all WisPolitics content. Get the app or access via desktop.

Mar. 31, 2023 – Whitefish Bay, WI – As the special election for Senate District 8 enters its final days, the campaign of Jodi for State Senate wants to recognize her backers in organized labor, included, but not limited to:

- Wisconsin State AFL-CIO
- Communication Workers of America District 4
- Chicago and Midwest Regional Joint Board, Workers United
- International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers Local 494
- International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers Wisconsin State Conference
- Teamsters Joint Council 39
- Teamsters Local Union #200
- North Central States Regional Council of Carpenters
- Service Employees International Union Wisconsin State Council
- United Auto Workers Wisconsin State CAP Council
- United Steelworkers District 7
- Wisconsin Laborers District Council
- Wisconsin Education Association Council Region 7

“I’m so grateful to have received the endorsement of so much of the organized labor community, advocating for workers both here in Wisconsin and across the country.” said Habush Sinykin, “Of particular pride to both myself and my husband Dan is my endorsement from the Chicago and Midwest Regional Joint Board, Workers United, which represents so many of our employees at our business, Monterey Mills. They, along with so many others, recognize that I will be a staunch advocate for workers in the Wisconsin State Senate should I be elected on April 4th to represent Senate District 8. I'm proud to have their support and I look forward to representing them as their next State Senator."