MADISON – Today, Governor Evers delivered his 2023-25 Budget Address, highlighting his priorities for Wisconsinites. In response, the Democratic members of the Joint Committee on Finance released the following statement:

“The Governor’s budget demonstrates Democrats’ continued commitment to building safe and healthy communities and supporting our vibrant workforce for generations to come. Budgets are about priorities, and Governor Evers made clear tonight that his priorities remain rooted in doing what’s best for our kids, strengthening our economy, and protecting our natural resources.

“Governor Evers’ exceptional leadership through unprecedented challenges places our state in an extraordinary financial position, and we’re excited to continue the momentum. As members of the Joint Committee on Finance, we look forward to supporting the historic investments outlined in the Governor’s budget to make Wisconsin the best place to live, work, and raise a family.”
