

Judge Protasiewicz Campaign: New ads highlight Dan Kelly's opposition to Social Security, extreme views

Posted on Tuesday, Mar 28, 2023

>> WisPolitics is now on the State Affairs network. Get custom keyword notifications, bill tracking and all WisPolitics content. Get the app or access via desktop.

MILWAUKEE, Wis. – With one week to go before the election, Judge Janet Protasiewicz's campaign for Wisconsin Supreme Court released two TV ads defining the choice voters face, between a common sense judge in Judge Janet and an extremist like Dan Kelly. The ads highlight Judge Protasiewicz's career as a fair and impartial judge, working to keep communities safe and protecting the constitutional rights of all Wisconsinites. These ads are part of the campaign's statewide, record-breaking, television advertising campaign which is now up to $10.3 million.

As a community leader, 25-year prosecutor, and Circuit Court judge, Judge Janet Protasiewicz has developed a reputation for being fair and impartial and has the trust of those who work with her. While she has represented only one client – the people of Wisconsin – Dan Kelly has been an extreme political operative, advising right-wing groups seeking to eliminate abortion rights and overturn our democracy.

Judge Janet knows that people across the state are tired of political extremism and corruption in the Supreme Court. On April 4th, voters will have a choice between democracy and right-wing extremism. Judge Janet is the one and only candidate who will deliver justice and restore integrity to the Wisconsin Supreme Court.