

LWM's Herkert talks about why the state shared revenue deal is so important for municipalities

Posted on Wednesday, Jul 19, 2023

In this week's Capitol Chats episode, League of Wisconsin Municipalities Government Affairs Director Toni Herkert talks about why the shared revenue deal that increases state aid to local governments is so important. She also talks about why some municipalities got more than others and why the Milwaukee-specific provisions are so contentious.