MILWAUKEE, WI — Special education educator and Milwaukee mother Amber Danyus announced today that Milwaukee Alderwoman Marina Dimitrijevic has endorsed her to be the next Alderwoman for Milwaukee's 9th District.

"Amber is just who the Council needs to help us build a Milwaukee where we can all thrive," said Alderwoman Dimitrijevic. "We need more hard working mothers to fight for a better future for our children in Milwaukee and I'm proud to endorse Amber for Alderwoman."

"Alderwoman Dimitrijevic has been a vocal champion for her constituents and has been hard at work advancing the reforms we need to make Milwaukee a more equitable place for all of us," said Danyus. "I'm honored to have the support of such a dedicated public servant, and this endorsement further demonstrates the broad community support that's behind my campaign. I'm ready to get to work with Alderwoman Dimitrijevic and the entire council to make Milwaukee a better place for us now, and for generations to come."
