Washington, DC — Today, NARAL Pro-Choice America announced the endorsement of Senator Tammy Baldwin (D-WI) for reelection to the U.S. Senate. Since taking office in 2013, Sen. Baldwin has been a tireless champion for reproductive freedom. The first woman ever elected to represent Wisconsin in Congress, Baldwin is a lead sponsor of the Women's Health Protection Act and consistently earned a 100% rating on NARAL's Congressional Record on Reproductive Freedom.

NARAL Pro-Choice America President Mini Timmaraju released the following statement:

"Throughout her career, Senator Baldwin has always had the backs of the 8 in 10 Americans who support the right to abortion. Her tireless leadership on important legislation to expand abortion rights and access demonstrates her deep commitment to reproductive freedom for all. In this year's Supreme Court election, Wisconsinites proved that they will show up to protect abortion. Come 2024, they will do so again by sending Tammy Baldwin back to the Senate."

Senator Tammy Baldwin released the following statement:

"For decades, NARAL has been a champion in the fight for reproductive freedoms, and I'm so proud to have them stand by my side as we work to restore the right to choose here in Wisconsin and across the country. Together, we'll work until no politician and no judge can stand between you and making your own health care decisions."

The launch of NARAL's electoral program for 2024 comes after running our largest-ever midterm electoral program during the 2022 election cycle. Recognizing the critical moment the fight for reproductive freedom faced, NARAL harnessed the full power of our 4 million members, focusing on deep field investments in phone banking, door knocking, youth organizing, and canvassing, along with a robust communications campaign to support endorsed candidates and ballot initiatives. Across the country, voters mobilized and reaffirmed that abortion access and reproductive freedom are winning issues. Read more about NARAL's endorsed candidates here.
