

Neubauer says she's focused on boosting K-12 school funding and shared revenue

Posted on Wednesday, Mar 1, 2023

In this week's Capitol Chats podcast, Minority Leader Greta Neubauer talks more about her idea to move to a full state-funding model for K-12 schools from the current two-thirds model. She also argues increasing shared revenue for local governments will help them keep many of their essential resources, such as public safety staff and equipment.