MIDDLETON – Phil Anderson – longtime liberty advocate and torchbearer of restrained government, peace and freedom – announced his candidacy for United States Senate on April 15th, at the Libertarian Party of Wisconsin state convention.

“The goal of my campaign is to unite people who realize that representative democracy has been broken by corruption. We can have different opinions on issues and policies, and that’s healthy- however, it doesn’t matter at all if corporate interests, including and especially the war cartel, control our government, economy, and media.

“Unlike the incumbent, I will not support the war machine by shilling F-35’s, nor will I support the surveillance state by advancing incredibly privacy-invading legislation like the Restrict Act. I will fight to end the persecution of journalists like Julian Assange, Matt Taibbi, Seymour Hersh and many others. We as citizens must demand the right to know what the government is doing, and oppose any effort by the government to hide the truth and intimidate truth-tellers.

Anderson is a real estate broker residing in Middleton, WI and is an active member in the state and local Libertarian Party along with his two children. He is the second candidate to officially declare a bid for the seat which is up for election on November 5, 2024.

“We must join together to DISRUPT the CORRUPTION so that we can get back to civil debate on human rights, political and economic issues, and understand that we all do better when we recognize the best in each other.”
