

Powering Wisconsin: Project spotlight: Wood County Solar brings opportunity for “perpetual tax relief” to area

Posted on Tuesday, Dec 5, 2023

>> WisPolitics is now on the State Affairs network. Get custom keyword notifications, bill tracking and all WisPolitics content. Get the app or access via desktop.

Madison, Wis. – Powering Wisconsin, a coalition of renewable energy developers, released a video showcasing Wood County Solar’s impacts on the community. Former Wood County Chair, Doug Machon, is featured in the video and discusses his support for renewable energy development.

Watch the video here.

“A solar array is good for everybody,” said Doug Machon, Former Wood County Chair. “Taking the money you’re going to get over 25 years and putting in the right place, you’re talking about perpetual tax relief.”

“Renewable energy brings opportunities for new and transformative income streams to local governments,” said Peder Mewis, Regional Policy Director for the Clean Grid Alliance. “Renewable energy developers are excited to partner with local communities to bring the most benefit possible to rural Wisconsin.”

For more information or to join the effort, visit PoweringWisconsin.org