MILWAUKEE, Wis. – Judge Janet Protasiewicz’s campaign for Wisconsin Supreme Court announced today she has earned the endorsement of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers Wisconsin State Conference.

“As a judge and veteran prosecutor, Judge Janet Protasiewicz has a strong record of being an impartial champion for Constitutional rights of everyone in our state. For too long the Wisconsin Supreme Court has placed partisan games ahead of common sense and the rule of law, and we know Judge Janet will bring much needed change as the court’s next justice,” said Dean Warsh, President of the IBEW Wisconsin State Conference. “On behalf of our members across Wisconsin, I’m proud to announce IBEW’s support for Judge Janet’s campaign.”

Since announcing her candidacy, Judge Protasiewicz has earned the support of organizations and individuals across Wisconsin. In addition to the IBEW’s endorsement, she has previously announced the support of the North Central States Regional Council of Carpenters, AFT Local 212, the Bricklayers and Allied Craftworkers of Wisconsin, Operating Engineers Local 139, UAW Wisconsin State CAP Council, and the Wisconsin Laborers’ District Council.

Judge Janet Protasiewicz is a community leader, a Circuit Court judge who upholds the law, and a 25-year former prosecutor who dedicated her career to protecting victims. Find out more about Judge Janet at www.JanetForJustice.com.
