Madison, WI—Governor Evers delivered his Budget Address to the Wisconsin Legislature tonight. Rep. Duchow (R-Delafield) issued the following statement:

For the third biennium in a row, Gov. Evers' proposed budget is an unrealistic Liberal wish list. It doubles down on failed policies and practices instead of delivering ideas and solutions that work. He's fortunate that we continue to have a Joint Finance Committee with smart people willing to do the hard work. I look forward to listening to the constituents in the 99th Assembly District, and working with my colleagues to craft a budget that works for all of Wisconsin.
