MILWAUKEE, WI — The campaign for Evan Goyke for Milwaukee City Attorney announced today that he has been endorsed by eleven members of the Milwaukee Common Council and Milwaukee County Board of Supervisors.

“Evan’s unwavering commitment to justice and community advancement is precisely what Milwaukee needs,” said Alderwoman JoCasta Zamarripa. “He embodies the leadership and integrity our city deserves.”

“Evan’s dedication to public service, commitment to justice, and profound understanding of the intricacies of local governance are qualities we need in this role,” said Alderman Jonathan Brostoff. “ His forward-thinking approach and tenacity to fight for the rights of every Milwaukee resident make him the leader we need as City Attorney. I’m proud to stand with him in this endeavor.”

“I am profoundly humbled by the endorsements from my colleagues in local government. Their confidence in my ability to serve as City Attorney is deeply gratifying,” said Rep. Evan Goyke. “Their endorsements represent a shared belief in our mission to ensure efficient, fair, and accountable local governance for the benefit of all Milwaukee residents. I am more determined than ever to champion the values of transparency, justice, and community engagement that are so crucial in our local government.”

The following members of the Milwaukee Common Council and Milwaukee County Board of Supervisors have endorsed Rep. Evan Goyke for Milwaukee City Attorney today:
