(Madison) – State Representative Joel Kitchens will hold three listening sessions on Monday, March 6, 2023. The events will give people in the Door and Kewaunee Counties a chance to talk about budget issues, legislation, concerns with a state agency or an interest in discussing any state government matter. Representative Kitchens says this is a great opportunity to make your voice heard.

“Now that Governor Evers released his budget plan, this is a chance for folks to tell me what they like, don’t like, and what needs to be changed in the budget,” Kitchens said, “I look forward to the opportunity to listen and learn.”
