“This budget includes historic investments on high priority issues for the constituents of the 69th Assembly District. Thank you to all who reached out to my office to voice your concerns. I applaud the Joint Committee on Finance for drafting a budget that includes historic investments in roads, agriculture, and education while cutting income taxes, property taxes, and shrinking the size of government. The positive impact this budget has on the 69th Assembly District will be felt in the years to come.”

- $1.6 million for cover crop rebates.
- $20 million for local child support enforcement activities.
- $1 billion for public education.
