MADISON - Today, Representative Lisa Subeck (D-Madison) released the following statement regarding the retirement of Secretary of State Doug La Follette, along with Governor Tony Evers's announcement that he will be appointing former Treasurer Sarah Godlewski to fill the position.

"As a public servant for more than four decades and as a lifelong champion for our environment, Doug La Follette has worked tirelessly for the people of Wisconsin. His presence will be missed in the capitol and I wish him the best in his retirement.

I extend my full support and heartfelt congratulations to former State Treasurer Sarah Godlewski. I look forward to working with her in her new capacity as Secretary of State."
