Madison: Representative Paul Tittl (R-Manitowoc) and State Senate Majority Leader Devin LeMahieu (R-Oostburg) are pleased to announce that they will hold two joint listening sessions in the 25th Assembly District on Monday, March 13th.

The sessions will take place at the Chilton Public Library on March 13th from 12:30 P.M. to 1:15 P.M. and on the UW-Manitowoc Campus at the Founders Hall, room F-170 from 2:00 P.M. to 3:00 P.M.

“The budget listening sessions are a great time,” said Rep. Tittl. “I always enjoy hearing from my constituents and learning how they would like their taxes spent.”

“Listening sessions are a wonderful opportunity for both legislators and constituents, and I encourage community members to attend.” Rep. Tittl said. “Good legislation does not come from a bunch of politicians sitting around in Madison, it comes from you with lived experiences so if you have any ideas for any bills please contact my office and we will work on it for you.”

If community members are unable to attend and would like to share their thoughts, they can contact Representative Tittl’s office at rep.tittl@legis.wisconsin.gov or 608-266-0315.
