Madison, WI – Longtime Cuba City Boys Basketball Coach Jerry Petitgoue will be honored by the Wisconsin State Assembly during their June 14th floor session with the Hometown Hero Award. He recently retired after 54 years of coaching.

The Hometown Hero Award is a legislative honor given to distinguished individuals who have worked hard to make a difference in their community and have an unconditional desire to lend a helping hand to those around them. Representative Travis Tranel (R-Cuba City) nominated Coach Petitgoue for this award in a letter to Assembly Majority Leader Tyler August on March 28th.

Date: Wednesday, June 14, 2023
Time: Starting at 1 p.m.
Location: State Capitol, Madison, WI – Assembly Chamber

The public is welcome to attend and observe the ceremony from the Assembly gallery or they can watch live at WisEye.org.
