Madison – State Representative Chuck Wichgers (R-Muskego) will hold four remaining listening sessions for his 82nd Assembly District constituents to offer insight into the 2023-25 biennial budget process and the new legislative session. He will answer questions and get feedback from residents on issues.

“My first and foremost responsibility in Madison is to represent the needs and interests of my constituents,” Rep. Wichgers said. “I also look forward to sharing my legislative agenda with the people of Greendale, Franklin, and Muskego.”

The listening sessions are as follows:

Greendale Public Library

Friday, March 24 Monday, April 10
9 AM -10:30 AM 6 PM – 7:30 PM

Franklin Public Library

Friday, April 28
9 AM – 10:30 AM

Muskego Public Library

Monday, March 20
9 AM -10:30 AM

If anyone is unable to attend a listening session, but would still like to contact their state representative, he or she can reach Rep. Wichgers at 414-507-3140 or email Rep.Wichgers@legis.wisconsin.gov.

Per library meeting room policy, meetings are not endorsed by any individual library.

“I am here to help you navigate issues with state agencies and listen to your concerns regarding state law,” Rep. Wichgers said. “My goal is to make Madison accessible to everyone in my district.”
