From Judge Brad Schimel:

“Wisconsin’s legislative maps were already reviewed and approved by both the Supreme Court of the United States and Supreme Court of Wisconsin. It’s troubling that because the membership of a court changes, we can have a new outcome the following year. This should come as a surprise to no one. This is the super-legislature that was promised by this liberal majority. If there’s any question as to why I’m in this race, this is why. This kind of judicial activism will do long-term damage to our state and to respect for our courts. No one should expect that this case will be the last.”
