“He knew how compromised Joe Biden would be.”

WASHINGTON – On Sunday, U.S. Sen. Ron Johnson (R-Wis.) joined Maria Bartiromo on Sunday Morning Futures for reaction to the “missing witness” from the Biden corruption investigation, Dr. Gal Luft, who was arrested in Cyprus before he could testify before the House Oversight Committee about corrupt Biden family business dealings.

Sen. Johnson asked: “Is DOJ trying to silence Dr. Gal Luft from publicly exposing Biden family corruption? The American people deserve the truth and Dr. Luft must have the chance to testify before Congress.”

On potential key witness Gal Luft's testimony:

“I’m glad you bring it up. Miranda Devine did great work again. She got the video. What’s very interesting about Dr. Luft is he’s an energy expert, had a think tank, consulted with people like CIA Director James Woolsey, Robert McFarlane, and he was consulting with CEFC, the same Chinese company connected to the Communist Party that was paying the Bidens millions of dollars. When he heard that Joe Biden was going to be running for president, that alarmed him, because he knew how compromised Joe Biden would be. So, he met with two prosecutors from the Southern District of New York and four FBI agents in Brussels for two days in March of 2019. What’s interesting about those individuals, one of the prosecutors from the Southern District of New York, is the same prosecutor that prosecuted Patrick Ho, the money launderer that paid Hunter Biden $1,000,000 to defend him. And in that trial, he prevented the name of Bidens from being brought into court. Also, one of the FBI agents was the same agent then that signed the subpoena from the Hunter Biden laptop. So, you know what Dr. Luft has shown is the same financial transactions, the millions of dollars, the $100,000 per month retainer for Hunter, $65,000 for James Biden, paid by CEFC. He's got a wealth of information, but they never followed up on that meeting. Instead, they arrested him in Cyprus to silence him. They could have gone to Israel. He resides in Israel. We have extradition treaties, but they instead arrest him in Cyprus. Now he's literally fleeing for his life right now. He's on the run. He's an important witness. He needs to be granted immunity to be able to testify and tell his story."

"Well, we have to keep exposing the truth. We need more whistleblowers coming forward. But they've done a really good job of setting up their procedures in the FBI, in the Department of Justice to insulate themselves from scrutiny. I mean, look at the letters that David Weiss sent to Jim Jordan in June 7th and June 30th. They're basically giving Jim Jordan the middle finger, 'you know, you can't investigate us because we have an active investigation.' That's what they always use as the excuse, so they've insulated themselves from scrutiny. It's very difficult. But one indication of the problem we have, in terms of the multiple tiered system of justice here, Robert Mueller in less than two years, spent $32 million on his special counsel investigation, on a complete hoax, on a false narrative that the Obama administration knew was perpetrated by Hillary Clinton as a dirty trick. The Russian collusion with Trump hoax, 32 million bucks. John Durham in over three years only spent $7.7 million and delivered virtually nothing. So it prevented Senator Grassley and I from investigating the corrupt Russian collusion investigation. Now, you've got Jack Smith in a few months who spent $5.5 million. Robert Hur, who's investigating Biden's classified documents, spent $616,000. So, when you just see the resources and effort put behind targeting Republicans or Donald Trump versus what little resources and how corrupt and unthorough the investigations are against Democrats. It's pretty revealing."

On the three scandals plaguing the Department of Justice:

"Yeah, I mean, let's face it, what evidence are we going to have to develop before the mainstream media actually pays attention to the corruption of the Bidens? You know, one of the reasons John Durham wasn't able to get convictions is I think the jury took a look at the bad actors in those cases were literally the FBI. And so Michael Sussmann and Igor Danchenko, who got led off the hook because the juries recognize the people committing probably crimes were the FBI in those jury trials. So, again, the FBI, the Department of Justice, they have insulated themselves from scrutiny. That's why what we need, is we actually need Democrats to be concerned about this as well. We need the majority in the Senate so I can be chairman of the Permanent Subcommittee on Investigations. And we need to hold these people accountable by first exposing the truth which is difficult to dig up."
