Madison – State Senator Dan Knodl (R-Germantown) issued the following statement on the 24th Assembly District special election winner Paul Melotik:

“I would like to congratulate my friend and new colleague Paul Melotik on his victory in the 24 th Assembly District. It just goes to show what hard work and dedication can accomplish. I am positive Paul will do a great job representing my former district and I look forwarding to working with him to improve our communities.”
