Madison- Senator Devin LeMahieu issued the following statement regarding the Wisconsin

Supreme Court's decision in Clarke v. Wisconsin Elections Commission:

"The Supreme Court's decision today lays bare the new liberal majority's core motivation: to benefit the unelected fundraisers and activists they are beholden to in the Democratic Party of Wisconsin," LeMahieu said.

"Justice Protasiewicz should have recused herself from this case. Instead, she cast the deciding vote on a case she had blatantly and publically prejudged.

"Justice should not be for sale in Wisconsin," LeMahieu concluded.
