MADISON - Today, State Senator Mark Spreitzer (D-Beloit) was unanimously elected by his Democratic colleagues in the Wisconsin State Senate to serve as the Senate Democratic Caucus Vice-Chair for the remainder of the 2023-2024 legislative session. Senator Spreitzer released the following statement:

“I am honored to be elected Senate Democratic Caucus Vice-Chair by my colleagues, and I look forward to being part of our leadership team. As we enter the new year, we have tremendous opportunities ahead of us. I look forward to working with my colleagues to maximize our collective impact in the State Capitol for the benefit of our constituents and the entire state of Wisconsin.”

Sen. Spreitzer was elected to replace Sen. Dianne Hesselbein (D-Middleton) as Senate Democratic Caucus Vice-Chair after Sen. Hesselbein’s recent election as Senate Democratic Leader.
