MILWAUKEE, WI- Milwaukee School Board candidates will host a joint press conference on Wednesday, February 1st, at the Urban Ecology Center located at 1859 N 40th Street, from 4:30 to 6:30 PM. The candidates participating in the press conference are: Jeff Spence (School Board - Citywide); Darryl L. Jackson (School Board - District 3); and Pamela Holmes (School Board - District 2 Write-In).

Each candidate will collectively share their campaign platforms, professional experiences and backgrounds, and engage in an in-depth Q&A discussion about the issues facing education in Milwaukee.

A joint statement by each candidate reads: "Our public educational system is in a state of emergency. It is time to engage in common sense policies and practices that will prioritize our students, educators and communities throughout Milwaukee. Change is long overdue. Join us to learn about our 'Call-to-Action' and plans for urgent, innovative and community-centered change in education".

The press conference is free and open to the public. Networking with the candidates will start at 4:30 PM. Programming will begin promptly at 5:00 PM.
