De Pere, Wis.: St. Norbert College's Center for Global Engagement (CGE) will host its annual Great Decisions Lecture Series beginning Wednesday, Feb. 8. Lectures are presented virtually on Zoom every other Wednesday, from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m., through April 26. Each year, the lecture series focuses on critical global issues selected by the Foreign Policy Association that serve to initiate dialogue and debate.

The lecture series is free and open to the public; community members are encouraged to join accomplished experts, faculty, staff and students in a 20-minute Q&A session following the 40-minute lecture.

The 2023 Great Decisions Lecture Series lineup is as follows:

Feb. 8: Patricia Terry, professor of engineering at University of Wisconsin-Green Bay, presents "Energy Geopolitics." Register at snc.edu/go/energy-geopolitics.

Feb. 15: Shirin Saeidi with Sara Ghadiri, assistant professor of Middle Eastern studies and director of Middle Eastern studies at the University of Arkansas, presents "Iran at a Crossroads." Register at snc.edu/go/iran.

March 8: Gratzia Villarroel, associate professor of political science at St. Norbert College, presents "Politics in Latin America - The Rise of Left-Wing Governments." Register at snc.edu/go/latin-america-politics.

March 22: Mark Bockenbauer, professor of geography at St. Norbert College, presents "Climate Migration - The Human Impact of Climate Change." Register
