Following the State of the Union, the President, the Vice President, and the Cabinet will blitz the country to showcase how the President's plan is creating jobs, rebuilding our infrastructure, lowering costs for families, investing in our future, and delivering for families too often left behind.

On Wednesday, February 8, the President will travel to the Madison area of Wisconsin. He will discuss how his economic plan is creating good-paying, union jobs and delivering real results for the American people.

On Thursday, February 9, the President will travel to Tampa, Florida. He will discuss his plan to protect and strengthen Social Security and Medicare and lower healthcare costs.

Additional details to follow.
