MADISON— The Tommy G. Thompson Center on Public Leadership is pleased to announce its sponsorship of e-Governance: A Digital Reboot of the Democratic State. This conversation with Kaspar Korjus will be at UW-La Crosse in the Student Union or virtually starting at 6:00 p.m.

Korjus is a leader in helping governments worldwide transform with the digital age. As founding managing director of Estonia's e-Residency program, where he served from 2014-2019, Korjus works to help governments worldwide to become digital and borderless. In 2019, Korjus returned to the private sector and co-founded Pactum - an artificial intelligence-based tool for automating business negotiations.

Korjus was the most cited Estonian by the global press in 2017 and 2018. He was listed by Forbes Estonia "30 under 30" people as No. 1 in technology and finance. He was elected by the U.S. Chief Technology Officer Megan Smith as one of the 20 global digital leaders.

This event is free and open to the public. This is a hybrid event. Hosted by the UW-La Crosse Department of Political Science and Public Administration, this event is sponsored by the Tommy G. Thompson Center on Public Leadership.
