WASHINGTON, DC – Today, Congressman Scott Fitzgerald (WI-05) was recommended by his peers to serve on the House Financial Services Committee. The Financial Services Committee has jurisdiction over issues pertaining to the economy, the banking system, housing, insurance, and securities and exchanges. Additionally, the Committee also has jurisdiction over monetary policy, international finance, international monetary organizations, and efforts to combat terrorist financing.

“I’m honored to be picked to serve on the House Financial Services Committee. American taxpayers and businesses desperately need pro-growth policies and regulatory stability to combat persistent inflation and economic uncertainty, said Congressman Scott Fitzgerald. I look forward to working to advancing fiscally responsible solutions to rebuild the nation’s economy.”
