WASHINGTON, DC – Today, Congressman Scott Fitzgerald released the following statement in response to the passage of the Limit, Save, Grow Act:

“From the start, House Republicans have been clear that we cannot raise the debt ceiling without cutting wasteful spending and putting our country on a sustainable fiscal path, said Congressman Scott Fitzgerald. Despite offering to negotiate responsibly months ago, President Biden has been unwilling to come to the table. I voted for this legislation because it would reduce the deficit by $4.8 trillion over the next ten years, stop excessive spending in Washington, and put our country’s economy back on track.”
