“Today was a great conversation with families about the issues facing our country. I always enjoy hearing directly from Wisconsin workers. Thank you to everyone who attended today’s listening sessions.”

Steil takes a question from a woman in Janesville.

Background:

Steil has hosted 37 in-person listening sessions since being elected to office. This year, Steil has assisted over 1,200 constituents with federal casework and responded to 23,000 messages sent by residents of Wisconsin’s First District.
