LA CROSSE, WI - Today marks 100 days since the 118th Congress convened in Washington, DC on January 3, 2023. Since then, Rep. Van Orden has led a constituent services-first office and delivered results for the people of Wisconsin's Third Congressional District.

“On my 100th day in Congress, I’m proud of the results our team has achieved on behalf of my constituents,” said Van Orden. “I look forward to continuing to advocate for the farmers, veterans, families, and working men and women who make up the Third District. We are here to help in any way we can.”

By the numbers, Rep. Van Orden’s office has:

- Introduced five bills, including three during his first two weeks in office.
- Sent over 40,000 letters to constituents.
- Closed over 200 cases for Wisconsinites seeking assistance with federal agencies.
- Organized over 100 Washington, DC tours to over 400 constituents.
- Participated in over 70 interviews with local and national media.
- Joined over 25 hearings on the Agriculture, Transportation and Infrastructure, and Veterans’ Affairs Committees.
