MILWAUKEE, Wis. – Judge Janet Protasiewicz today announced the endorsement of Senator Tammy Baldwin for her campaign for Wisconsin Supreme Court.

“Judge Janet Protasiewicz is the best candidate to return fairness and impartiality back to the Wisconsin Supreme Court. I’m proud to support her in this race, because Wisconsinites deserve a court that follows the law, gives every case a fair hearing, and protects the rights guaranteed to everyone in our state. Today, extreme members of the court are more concerned with advancing their own political agenda, not upholding our laws. I know Judge Janet Protasiewicz will bring common sense back to the court,” said Senator Tammy Baldwin.

“I’m proud to have earned Senator Tammy Baldwin’s support in this race. She knows that Wisconsinites expect their Supreme Court to follow the law and protect our constitutional rights – that’s exactly why I’m running and that’s what I’ll deliver as a justice on the court,” said Judge Janet Protasiewicz. “We’ve earned the support of thousands of Wisconsinites, and more votes than any candidate in the primary, because people are ready for change and common sense.”

In addition to Senator Baldwin’s support, Judge Janet Protasiewicz has earned the endorsement of more than 1,000 community leaders, judges, elected officials, and attorneys across Wisconsin. She has also been endorsed by current Wisconsin Supreme Court Justices Ann Walsh Bradley, Rebecca Dallet, and Jill Karofsky.
