The Fitchburg Professional Police Officers Association (FPPOA) has endorsed City Council President Randy Udell for Mayor.

“We believe Randy Udell is prepared to lead Fitchburg,” said Ryan Bigalk, FPPOA Interim President. “We sat down with both candidates and we appreciated Randy’s knowledge of public safety and his understanding of the issues our first responders face. The Fitchburg Professional Police Officers Association is supporting Randy to be Fitchburg’s next Mayor.”

“I have enormous respect for our police and first responders, the work they do, and the service they provide to our residents,” City Council President Udell said. “It is an honor to earn the endorsement of the FPPOA and I look forward to working collaboratively in order to make Fitchburg stronger and safer.”

FPPOA joins Udell’s growing list of endorsers which includes Congressman Mark Pocan, former Dane County Sheriff Dave Mahoney, the Democratic Party of Dane County, South Central Federal of Labor – AFL-CIO, and the LGBT Victory Fund. For a current list, visit www.udellforfitchburg.com.

The election for Fitchburg Mayor is on the Spring General Election ballot, April 4, 2023.
