

UW-Green Bay: Council of Trustees welcomes new members

Posted on Monday, Jan 9, 2023

>> WisPolitics is now on the State Affairs network. Get custom keyword notifications, bill tracking and all WisPolitics content. Get the app or access via desktop.

GREEN BAY, WI – The University of Wisconsin-Green Bay's Council of Trustees recently announced new members.

- Verónica Brieno Rankin is a 1999 graduate of UW-Green Bay. Ms. Verónica Brieno Rankin is the Keesler Air Force Base (AFB) Installation Management Flight Chief overseeing asset accountability, Keesler AFB military housing management, and environmental compliance. Ms. Brieno Rankin came to the Department of the Air Force (DAF) from the Forest Service, where she served as the Assistant Director of the Office of Locatable Minerals, Salable Minerals, and Abandoned Mine Lands overseeing hardrock mineral development and abandoned mine safety closures within 154 National Forests. Brieno Rankin is an 2006 Alumni Award recipient.
- Jenene Calloway is Vice President of Talent Management and Chief Diversity at Schreiber Foods Inc., where she leads talent acquisition, training and development, and diversity, equity, and inclusion teams. In her career, she has worked with organizations to create their recruitment, development, and retention strategies. She lives in Green Bay with her husband and two children.
- Nathan King a 2002 graduate of UW-Green Bay with a bachelor's degree in urban regional studies, serves as vice president of Bay Bank. With two branches in Green Bay and a third branch in Keshena, Bay Bank is owned by the Oneida Tribe, making it the only tribally owned bank in Wisconsin. Prior to joining Bay Bank, King earned his master's in business administration from Baker University and worked for the Oneida Tribe of Indians for 12 years in various positions.

About the Council of Trustees

The University of Wisconsin-Green Bay Council of Trustees is a 35-member council consisting of community leaders, economic leaders and key alumni. The trustees act as key advisors to UW-Green Bay's leadership team on strategy and act as community ambassadors for the University. Discover more about the Trustees.

About the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay

Established in 1965, UW-Green Bay is a public institution serving 9,616 undergraduate, graduate and doctoral students and 95,000 continuing education learners each year. We educate students from pre-college through retirement and offer 200+ degrees, programs and certificates. UW-Green Bay graduates are resilient, inclusive, sustaining and engaged members of their communities, ready to rise to fearlessly face challenges, solve problems and embrace diverse ideas and people. With four campus locations, the University welcomes students from every corner of the world. UW-Green Bay was the fastest-growing UW school in Wisconsin for six consecutive years. For more information, visit www.uwgb.edu.