

UW-Green Bay: Register now for Institute for Women's Leadership 'Stories from Experience' with Jenene Calloway, Schreiber Foods

Posted on Thursday, Jan 26, 2023

>> WisPolitics is now on the State Affairs network. Get custom keyword notifications, bill tracking and all WisPolitics content. Get the app or access via desktop.

Green Bay, WI — Register now for UW-Green Bay's Institute for Women's Leadership (IWL) leadership development program, "Women Rising: Stories from Experience." Designed to deliver the three things women need to advance in their careers - networking/connections, education and inspiration, Tuesday's session features Jenene Calloway, Vice President, Talent Development & Chief Diversity Officer with Schreiber Foods.

"Women Rising: Stories from Experience" is a series featuring distinguished woman from the area, sharing their stories of challenge and triumph and offering advice for women following in their footsteps. IWL Executive in Residence, Bridget Krage O'Connor, moderates the stories.

Jenene Calloway, Vice President, Talent Development & Chief Diversity Officer with Schreiber Foods

Tuesday, January 31

4-5:30 p.m.

Schreiber Foods, Inc., 400 N Washington, Green Bay

Professionally trained as an industrial/organizational psychologist, Jenene Calloway honed her skills working in various human resources and organizational development roles. She is currently the Vice President of Talent Management and Chief Diversity Officer at Schreiber Foods, Inc., where she leads talent acquisition, training and development, and diversity, equity, and inclusion teams. In her career, she has worked with organizations to create their recruitment, development, and retention strategies. In the various roles she has held at Schreiber within the last 16 years, she has been able to lower employee turnover, implement change management solutions, build multi-level employee development programs, and provide solutions to champion an inclusive workplace.

Register here.

Mark your calendars for the next “Women Rising: Stories from Experience” session on Wednesday, April 12, featuring Gabrielle Dow, Vice President of Marketing & Fan Engagement, Green Bay Packers.

About the Institute for Women’s Leadership

UW-Green Bay’s Institute for Women’s Leadership is dedicated to engaging, inspiring and empowering the women leaders to ensure a strong and equitable leadership pipeline. The University established the Institute in 2021, recognizing the region’s growing need for leaders and the distinct challenges faced by professional women in the workplace. The Institute is a comprehensive leadership resource committed to providing ongoing, forward-thinking networking, education, research and inspiration to support women and their organizations as they rise.

The Institute presents wide-ranging programs, events, and research, benefiting women with access to experts and supportive networks, leadership certificate programs, a speaker’s series and more. Equally important, the Institute works to increase communities’ knowledge and awareness of issues related to women in leadership and advance new knowledge about women and leadership in the State of Wisconsin through benchmarking data on women in business and research about women and leadership. More on the institute can be found at <https://www.uwgb.edu/womens-leadership/>.

About the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay

Established in 1965, UW-Green Bay is a public institution serving 9,616 undergraduate, graduate and doctoral students and 95,000 continuing education learners each year. We educate students from pre-college through retirement and offer 200+ degrees, programs and certificates. UW-Green Bay graduates are resilient, inclusive, sustaining and engaged members of their communities, ready to rise to fearlessly face challenges, solve problems and embrace diverse ideas and people. With four campus locations, the University welcomes students from every corner of the world. UW-Green Bay was the fastest-growing UW school in Wisconsin for six consecutive years. For more information, visit www.uwgb.edu.