Madison, WI – Wisconsin Family Action PAC (WFA PAC), the state's only conservative pro-family PAC, announced today it has endorsed Justice Dan Kelly for a ten-year term on the Wisconsin Supreme Court.

WFA PAC director Julaine Appling, commented, "Justice Dan Kelly has everything we look for in a judge, especially for our state's highest court. He has made it very clear and very public that his judicial philosophy is that the courts are not lawmakers; that's the job of the legislature. The role of the judiciary, as Justice Kelly puts it, is to interpret the laws according to the clear language of state statutes and the Wisconsin Constitution and the US Constitution. Deciding a case based on a political or personal agenda is outside the purview of a justice.

"Justice Kelly has given us a body of work from his four years on the Wisconsin Supreme Court. We don't have to guess about whether he will actually do what he has said he will do—uphold the rule of law, a pillar of our form of government. We have votes, and we have written opinions on a host of issues. We aren't relying on campaign rhetoric or "you-have-my-word" statements during interviews. We have a track record. Justice Kelly has the judicial temperament, experience, and the character that make him the best qualified candidate for this position on our state's Supreme Court."

The primary election for this race will be on Tuesday, February 21, 2023. The two candidates receiving the most votes in the primary will move on to the general election on Tuesday, April 4, 2023.

"We are proud to endorse Justice Dan Kelly and urge citizens across the state to support him with their votes and influence. He's exactly the kind of justice we need on our State Supreme Court," said Appling.
