

Wisconsin Women in Government: Announces board members and executive committee

Posted on Friday, Aug 25, 2023

>> WisPolitics is now on the State Affairs network. Get custom keyword notifications, bill tracking and all WisPolitics content. Get the app or access via desktop.

MADISON - Wisconsin Women in Government (WWIG), a statewide, bipartisan, non-profit organization of women in government service, today announced new Board of Directors members and Executive Committee.

New Board of Directors Members

WWIG is pleased to welcome a cohort of outstanding new members to its ranks. These individuals bring a diverse range of experiences, skills, and perspectives to the organization. Their dedication to public service and commitment to making a positive impact align seamlessly with WWIG's core values. With these additions, WWIG expands its already vibrant community, amplifying its collective strength as an advocate for women in government.

- Richelle Andrae
- Vaishnavi Mannar
- Emily Petersen
- Eileen Pierce
- Erin Smith
- Carla Wolff

Executive Committee Appointments

The Executive Committee serves as the guiding force behind WWIG's strategic initiatives and direction. It is with great enthusiasm that WWIG announces the members of the 2023-2025 Executive Committee:

- Chelsea Shanks, President
- Allison Cramer, Vice-President
- Audra Cohen-Plata, Past President
- Sherri Voigt , Treasurer
- Karley Downing, Secretary
- Diane Handrick, Member-at-Large
- Kimberly Hernandez, Member-at-Large

“We are thrilled to welcome our new Board members and announce the exceptional individuals comprising our Executive Committee,” said Chelsea Shanks, President of Wisconsin Women in Government. “Their collective experience and passion for advancing women’s leadership in government will undoubtedly propel WWIG to new heights.”

For more information on WWIG and to become a member, please visit: wiscwomeningovernment.org.