MADISON, Wis. — Today, Californian Eric Hovde (R-Laguna Beach) spoke at a Dane County GOP country club event as he gears up for his Wisconsin Senate run. At the event, he was greeted by a WisDems billboard truck highlighting his California home, his California ties, and some advice about living in the great state of Wisconsin we think he may be able to use.

“California Hovde can run for Senate, but he can’t run from his California mansion or his California life. We will remind voters every day that California Hovde is an out-of-state, out-of-touch multimillionaire who doesn’t share our Wisconsin values,” said Democratic Party of Wisconsin Rapid Response Director Arik Wolk.
