MADISON, Wis. — Ahead of the Republican National Committee's (RNC) summer meeting in Milwaukee next week, Republican Party of Wisconsin Chairman Brian Schimming was named Midwestern Regional Co-Chairman for the RNC's State Chairmen's Advisory Committee. This appointment comes from Chairman Ronna McDaniel — showcasing once again the importance of Wisconsin.

The RNC will convene next week for the 168-summer meeting. Schimming has is also a member of RNC's 168, the Committee on Arrangements, and Temporary Grassroots Committee for the 2024 Milwaukee Republican National Convention.

"I am pleased to be tapped for another leadership opportunity. While I will always prioritize Wisconsin and our grassroots, I find it of the utmost importance our neighboring states and the National Party are working hand in glove with Wisconsin Republicans to lay the groundwork back to the White House, which begins in my home state," said RPW Chairman Brian Schimming. "I'd also once again like to thank the Chairwoman for giving Wisconsin the attention it deserves."
