

WWIG and Deloitte: To co-host “Government Voices: Building Your Brand in Hybrid World”

Posted on Wednesday, Jul 26, 2023

>> WisPolitics is now on the State Affairs network. Get custom keyword notifications, bill tracking and all WisPolitics content. Get the app or access via desktop.

MADISON - Wisconsin Women in Government (WWIG) and Deloitte are excited to host “Government Voices: Building Your Brand in a Hybrid World.” This event will be held on Thursday, August 17 at the Wisconsin Historical Society. Doors and registration open at 4:30 p.m. The panel begins at 5:30 p.m. Attendees will learn how to leverage digital platforms, amplify their voices, and establish an impactful presence in both physical and virtual workplace. Distinguished Wisconsin state agency officials will provide insights on how to navigate and excel in a hybrid work environment.

Attendees will learn how to leverage digital platforms, amplify their voices, and establish an impactful presence in both physical and virtual workplace. Distinguished Wisconsin state agency officials will provide insights on how to navigate and excel in a hybrid work environment.

Panelists include:

Kathy Blumenfeld, Secretary, Department of Administration

Emilie Amundsen, Secretary, Department of Children and Families

Sarah Velencia, Assistant Deputy Secretary, Department of Health Services

Sarah Barry, Administrator, Division of Policy Development, Department of Safety and Professional Services

Stacey Rolston, Senior Associate Vice President, UW-Shared Services

“We are proud to bring together a panel of successful and inspiring women,” said WWIG President Audra Cohen-Plata. “Their years of experience will provide a unique opportunity for professionals at all stages of their career to learn new insights.”

Registration is now open HERE.