Madison, WI — Grassroots volunteers across the state joined Americans for Prosperity–Wisconsin (AFP–WI) on Saturday to knock doors in support of Rep. Tom Tiffany’s gubernatorial bid and hear from Wisconsinites firsthand on what they want to see the next governor accomplish. The event comes on the heels of AFP-WI’s recent endorsement of Rep. Tiffany on Thursday on the Dan O’Donnell Show.

“Our grassroots network is the biggest and best in the state, and now it has a singular goal; to inform Wisconsinites why Tom Tiffany is the best hope for Wisconsin’s next four years,” AFP-WI State Director Megan Novak said. “Getting out there to talk to Wisconsinites and listen to their concerns is what we do best. Saturday was just the beginning, and our volunteers will be very busy between now and election day.”

During Saturday’s event, AFP-WI volunteers heard repeatedly from Wisconsinites that they’re fired up for new leadership in Madison. People want a governor who will bring the state’s cost of living down and champion strong public safety. AFP-WI knows Rep. Tiffany will deliver on both counts.
