As Derrick Van Orden and Bryan Steil try to spin the state of their disastrous economy, here's your reminder that Minnesota families are already paying nearly \$1,600 more on average due to their cost-spiking agenda.

Here's how Van Orden and Steil have wrecked the economy for working families:

- Van Orden and Steil voted to rubber-stamp Trump's tariffs that have cost the average American household more than \$1,700 each and chaos for Wisconsin farmers.
- Grocery costs are up by \$310 under unified GOP control of Washington.
- Energy bills have increased by an average of 13%.
- 30,000 people in WI-03 are paying 123% more and 26,000 people in WI-01 are paying 69% more on average for their health insurance premiums, due to Van Orden and Steil's failure to extend the tax credits before they expired.

And reminder: Van Orden and Steil voted to give handouts to billionaires and big corporations instead of real tax relief for Wisconsin families.

DCCC Spokesperson Katie Smith:

“Derrick Van Orden and Bryan Steil promised Wisconsinites they would fix the economy. Instead, families and farmers are struggling because Van Orden and Steil rubber-stamped reckless tariffs and a billionaires-first agenda that has made everything from groceries to housing to health care more expensive.”
