Judge Chris Taylor's victory would grow the liberal majority to 5-2 and secure the majority until at least 2030

WASHINGTON — Today, the Democratic Legislative Campaign Committee (DLCC) designated Wisconsin Supreme Court candidate Judge Chris Taylor as a Spotlight candidate ahead of her crucial race on April 7th. Flipping this seat would give liberals a 2-seat majority and guarantee liberal control of the court until at least 2030. The stakes are high as the court considers and shapes key issues affecting Wisconsinites, including redistricting.

That's why DLCC is maxing out with a five-figure investment to the candidate ahead of this race. Breaking the conservative court majority in 2023 and defending it in 2025 were instrumental to ending over a decade of Republican gerrymandering that locked state legislative Democrats out of power. This Supreme Court race can help protect Democratic progress and set the tone heading into competitive races up and down the ticket in Wisconsin.

Democratic Legislative Campaign Committee President Heather Williams issued the following statement:

“Democrats are on the cusp of flipping the legislature in Wisconsin, but before we get to November, strengthening the liberal majority on the court is imperative to the future of power in this state. The opportunity to elect a liberal majority until 2030 has huge implications for everything from redistricting to personal rights and freedoms. The DLCC is all hands on deck to support Judge Chris Taylor's election this spring as we gear up to flip the legislature and cement a brighter future for Wisconsinites in 2026."

Judge Chris Taylor serves on the Wisconsin Court of Appeals and is running for the Wisconsin Supreme Court this April. Chris is a former Wisconsin State Assemblymember who has dedicated her career to protecting the rights of all people. If elected, Chris will bring that same dedication to Wisconsin's highest court and strengthen the court's pro-freedom, pro-democracy majority.

The Democratic Legislative Campaign Committee (DLCC) is the campaign arm of Democratic state legislatures and leads the national strategy for building power and winning new majorities. Over the last three decades, we have strategized cycle over cycle to win majorities and lead the effort to bring national attention and investment to our ballot level, winning nearly a dozen new chamber majorities over the last decade. Our work has ensured that nearly half of Americans are represented by at least one Democratic majority in their statehouse. State legislatures are the building blocks of our democracy and have the closest connections to Americans' day-to-day lives. From protecting fundamental freedoms and voting rights to growing the middle class and advancing opportunity, the DLCC and state legislators are moving the Democratic agenda forward and shaping the future of this country.
