Reporting from Up North News and the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel reveals that Congressman Tom Tiffany has voted absentee a dozen times in the past decade, even as he backs ending mail-in voting in Wisconsin.

Tiffany's attacks on mail-in voting, which over a million Wisconsin voters rely on to cast their ballot, comes as Donald Trump and his allies demand voter data and threaten once again to interfere with states' ability to administer elections freely and safely. Tiffany also voted against certifying the 2020 election, signed on to a brief to overturn the outcome of that year's election, and has pushed dangerous and debunked conspiracy theories about the election being stolen.

Up North News: Tom Tiffany, regular absentee voter, says 'I don't believe we should be doing mail-in voting'

- The presumptive Republican candidate for governor parrots a false claim by President Donald Trump to defend his desire to cut accessibility for hundreds of thousands of Wisconsin voters.
- [Tiffany] told a podcast host Thursday, "I don't believe we should be doing mail-in voting," making an exception only for members of the US Armed Forces.
- More than 1.5 million Wisconsin voters cast absentee ballots in the November 2024 presidential election in Wisconsin, including about 600,000 that were mailed in, demonstrating its ongoing popularity.

- Records indicate Tiffany has voted absentee 12 times since 2016, according to an official with the Democratic Party of Wisconsin. It was not clear if those ballots were cast by mail or in-person at his local election clerk's office.

Milwaukee Journal Sentinel: Governor candidate Tom Tiffany sends mixed signals on mail-in voting

- In a March 12 interview with a conservative news outlet based in northwest Wisconsin, Tiffany said he doesn't believe "we should be doing mail-in voting" when asked for his thoughts on the practice.
- A spokeswoman for Tiffany told the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel the congressman was responding to a practice where all registered voters are automatically sent an absentee ballot, even though the distinction was not mentioned in the question or in Tiffany's answer and the practice does not exist in Wisconsin.
- Tiffany voted against certifying the results of the 2020 presidential election, citing absentee voting practices during that election. He said because of them, "Wisconsin voters will never truly know who actually won our state."
