STANLEY, WI – Today Trump Conservative Jessi Ebben’s congressional campaign announced she has been endorsed by Taylor County Sheriff Corey Dassow.

In a statement, Sheriff Dassow said, “Keeping our communities safe means enforcing the law and making sure repeat violent offenders do not cycle back onto our streets. In Congress, Jessi Ebben will fight to keep traffickers and criminal gang members behind bars. Jessi will stand with law enforcement against left-wing anti-police agendas, and work to secure the funding and resources our departments need to protect Wisconsin families. That’s why I strongly endorse Jessi Ebben for Congress.”

Jessi has also been endorsed by several other sheriffs from around the 7th Congressional District, including Monroe County Sheriff Wes Revels, Marathon County Sheriff Chad Billeb, Oneida County Sheriff Grady Hartman, former Vilas County Sheriff Joseph Fath, and current Vilas County Sheriff Gerard Ritter.

In addition, Jessi Ebben has been endorsed by members of Congress including Rep. Anna Paulina Luna, Rep. Virginia Foxx, and Rep. Eric Burlison, as well as Club For Growth PAC.
