After exhausting diplomatic options, President Trump took decisive action against Iran following the regime's sustained aggression and pursuit of nuclear capabilities which continued to endanger the United States and our allies.

48 hours later, Commie Rebecca Cooke is still SILENT. Apparently, Cooke's DC consultants, who are trying to get rid of Democrat primaries, still haven't sent her talking points. However, Cooke's BFF Socialist Zohran Mamdani, who Cooke proudly endorsed, condemned the United States' actions to keep Americans safe.

“Commie Rebecca Cooke can't tie her own shoes without DC consultants lacing them up. She's never had an original thought that wasn't scripted by Washington insiders and she sure can't be trusted to fight for Wisconsin.” - NRCC Spokesman Zach Bannon
